

THE RECORD

THE CHURCH SERVICE SOCIETY

EDITORIAL NOTE

This is my third and last issue of the Record as Editor. I shall be succeeded by the Revd James Stewart who has been actively involved in the production of the Record for some years and has been particularly helpful to me. I am also much indebted to Miss Susan Wilson for help in typing and presentation.

Tribute is paid on a later page to three notable members of the Society, Sir James Marjoribanks, Professor J K S Reid and the Very Revd W B R Macmillan who have died since the last issue of the Record.

The theme of this issue has emerged as Challenge. Professor Forrester's presidential address on the dangers of sacramentalism was the climax of his service to the Society and we thank him for both. Dr Donald's paper on whether worship unites or divides us is equally challenging. Mr Stewart's paper on Common Worship discusses the implications for us of the Church of England's recent publication bearing that title. The review of 'Presbyterian Praise' is also somewhat challenging.

I am grateful to all the contributors and apologise for the delays which have been experienced by some.
