

SECRETARIAL NOTES

The rearrangement of the General Assembly to run from Thursday to Wednesday meant that last year's AGM took place in the afternoon of Monday 19 May 2008. Otherwise our meeting followed the usual format, with three dozen members and friends present to note the accounts and approve the appointment of several new Council members. The short business meeting was followed by retiring President, The Revd David Mill, giving his valedictory address 'Liturgy – giving the customers what they want?' As always on the conclusion of the AGM, the customers were given what they want in the form of an excellent supper at the back of the church!

Elsewhere in this edition of The Record Geoffrey Stevenson offers some thoughtful reflections on our Study Day in Luss on 2 October 2008. Suffice to say those present were all given much to think about during the course of a fascinating day out on the bonnie banks of Loch Lomond.

Plans are now in hand for our 2009 AGM on Monday 25 May, when Professor Alasdair Heron will mark the 'Year of Calvin' with a lecture on Calvin and worship, and for our 2009 Study Day, which will address the provision of worship taking full account both of environmental matters and of the current economic climate.
