

Psalm 145

"O Lord that art my God and king"

Text by John Craig

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. O Lord that art my God and king, Un - doubt - ed - ly, I will thee praise,
2. Race shall thy works praise un - to race: And so de - clare thy power, O Lord.
3. They shall break out, to men - ti - on And spe - ci - fy thy great good - ness:

7

I will ex - toll and bles - sings sing, Un - to thine ho - ly name al - ways.
The glor - ious beau - ty of thy grace, And won - drous works, will I re - cord.
And with loud voice their songs each one Shall frame, to show thy right - eous - ness,

13

From day to day I will thee bless, And laud thy name world with - out end.
And all men shall the power (O God) Of all thy fear - ful acts de - clare:
The Lord our God is gra - ci - ous, Yea, mer - ci - ful is he al - so:

19

For great is God most wor - thy praise, Whose great - ness none may com - pre - hend.
And I to pub - lish all a - broad. Thy great - ness, at no time will spare.
In mer - cy he is plen - ti - ous, But un - to wrath, and an - ger, slow.