

Psalm 19

"The heavens and the firmaments"

Text by Thomas Sternhold

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. The hea - vens and the fir - ma - ments do won - drous - ly de - clare,
2. There is no lang - uage, tongue or speech, where their sound is not heard
3. And as a val - iant cham - pi - on, who for to get a price,

6

The glo - ry of God om - ni - po - tent his works and what they are:
In all the earth and coasts there - of, their know - ledge is con - ferred.
With joy doth haste to take in hand some no - ble en - ter - prise.

11

The won - drous works of God ap - pear, by eve - ry day's suc - cess,
In them the Lord made for the sun a place of great re - nown:
And all the sky from end to end he com - pass - eth a - bout:

16

The nights which like - wise their race run, these self same thing ex - press.
Who like a bride - groom rea - dy trimmed doth from his cham - ber come.
No - thing can hide it from his heat, but he will find it out.

Original tenor begins on G.
