

Psalm 30

"All laud and praise with heart"

Text by John Hopkins

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. All laud and praise with heart and voice, O Lord, I give to thee,
2. Of thy good-will thou hast called back, my soul from hell to save:
3. For why? His an-ger but a space doth last and slack a-gain:

6

Which didst not make my foes re-joice, but hast ex-alt-ed me,
Thou didst re-vive, when strength did lack and kept me from the grave.
But in his fa-vour and his grace, al-ways doth life re-main.

11

O Lord my God to thee I cried, in all my pain and grief:
Sing praise, ye saints, that prove and see, the good-ness of the Lord:
Though gripes of grief and pangs full sore shall lodge with me all night,

16

Thou gave an ear and didst pro-vide to ease me with re-lief.
In mem'-ry of his ma-jes-ty, re-joice with one ac-cord.
The Lord to joy shall us re-store, be-fore the day be light.