

Psalm 76*

"In Jewry lands God is well known"

Text by Robert Pont

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. In Jew - ry lands God is well known, In Is - ra -
2. There did he break the bow - men's shafts, Their fie - ry den
3. The stout heart - ed were made a prey, A sud - den el great is his name. He chose out Sa - lem for his darts so swift of flight: Their shields, out their swords and for all their sleep did them con - found: And all the strong men in that own, His ta - ber - na - cle of great fame There - in to crafts Of war, when they were boon to fight. More ex - cel - fray Their fee - ble hands they have not found. At thy re - raise: and Mount Zi - on, To make his ha - bi - lent and more migh - ty Art thou there - fore than buke, O Ja - cob's God, Hor - ses with char - iots ta - ti - on And re - si - dence with - in the same. moun - tains high, Of rav' - nous wolves with - out all right.

o - ver - trod, As with dead sleep were cast to ground.

* Melody is in the soprano.