

Psalm 82

"Amid the crowd with men of might"

Text by John Hopkins

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. A - mid the crowd with men of might, the Lord him - self did stand: To
2. Where - as of due ye should de - fend the fa - ther - less and weak: And
3. But no - thing will they know or learn, in vain to them I talk: They plead the case of truth and right, with jud - ges of the land. How when the poor man doth con - tend, in judge - ment just - ly speak. If will not see or ought dis - cern, but still in dark - ness walk. For long, said he, will you pro - ceed, false judge - ment to a - ward? And ye be wise, de - fend the cause of poor men in their right: And lo, ev'n now the time is come, that all things fall to naught: And have re - spect for love of mead, the wick - ed to re - gard?

18

rid the need - y from the claws of ty - rants' force and might.
like - wise laws both all and some, for gain are sold and bought.
