

EDITORIAL

Mr. F. N. Davidson Kelly who was for long a member of the Council of the Society died suddenly after leaving the session of the General Assembly where he had been thanked for 36 years' work as Secretary of the Committee on Public Worship and Aids to Devotion. A fuller tribute to him will appear in a future number of the Review.

* * *

Professor Torrance's Presidential Address to the Society in 1972 has now been more fully developed and published in Theology in Reconciliation, Geoffrey Chapman, 1975 – chapter 4. Chapter 3 also contains a fuller study of the matter contained in pp. 6-12 of Vol. 6, No. 1 (May 1976).

* * *

Readers may already know of the two useful leaflets with the title 'Historic Scottish Kirks' covering the Berwick and East Lothian Area and also Inverness and the North. It is understood that a third is planned covering Glasgow and Ayrshire. One would wish to commend the extending of the series to cover Fife and possibly Angus and Mearns where there is much of interest. The production is by the Church of Scotland Department of Publicity and Publication.

* * *

Rev. Douglas M. Murray has just been awarded the Ph.D. degree of Cambridge University for his thesis on the History of the Scottish Church Society 1892-1914 with the sub-title 'A Study of the High Church Movement in the Church of Scotland'.

* * *

The Editor would be glad to hear from any members who have been making provision in recent years for more frequent communion. It would be valuable to have a note of response and of the problems encountered.

* * *

The Editor welcomes letters or contributions from members, especially those working in parishes and engaging in new experimental forms. Reports of successes and of difficulties are often of value to others if they are shared through the pages of the Review. Articles for publication are also welcome. An optimum length is about 3000 words. Preferred format is typed 1½-line spacing on one side of the paper.