

Psalm 34

"I will give laud and honour both"

Text by Thomas Sternhold

Harmonised by David Peebles

1. I will give laud and hon - our both un - to the Lord al - ways And
2. There - fore see that ye mag - ni - fy, with me the liv - ing Lord, And
3. Who so they be that him be - hold, shall see his light most clear: Their eke my mouth for ev - er - more shall speak un - to his praise. I do de - let us now ex - alt his name to - gether with one ac - cord. For I my - coun - te - nance shall not be dashed: they need it not to fear. This sil - ly light to laud the Lord in soul and eke in voice, That self be - sought the Lord: he an - swered me a - gain, And wretch for some re - lief, un - to the Lord did call: Who hum - ble men and mor - ti - fied may hear and so re - joice, me de - livered in - con - ti - nent from all my fear and pain.

7

13

18

did him hear with - out de - lay, and rid him out of thrall.