Psalm 72
"Lord give thy judgements to the king"

Text by William Whittingham
Harmonised by David Peebles

1. Lord give thy judgements to the King, therein instruct him well, And with
2. And let the mountains that are high, unto their folk give peace, And so
3. And then from age to age shall they regard and fear thy might: So long his son, that princely thing, Lord, let thy justice dwell. That he may let little hills apply, in justice to increase. That he may as sun doth shine by day, or else the moon by night. Lord, make the govern uprightly and rule thy folk a right: And so de-help the weak and poor with aid, and make them strong: And so de-King unto the just, like rain to fields new mow’n: And like to fend through equity, the poor that have no might.

stroy for evermore all those that do them wrong.
drops that lay the dust and fresh the land unsown.
