Psalm 80

4. O Lord God of armies,
   thy folk to consume:
   How long at their prayers,
   shall thine anger fume?
5. Thou feedest them with bread,
   of weeping and woe:
   Tears largely to drink,
   thou gavest them also.

6. Thou settest us the hatred,
   and strife to sustain:
   Of all our next neighbours
   our harms that have seen.
   And our foes right glad
   of our shame and wrong,
   With taunting us mock,
   themselves all among.

7. O Lord God of armies,
   our strength and our stay,
   Return and restore us,
   without more delay.
   And let shine on us,
   thy countenance clear.
   So shall we be safe
   and shrink for no fear.

8. A vine out of Egypt
   thou broughtest with great cure.
   Thou cast out the Gentiles
   and plantedest it sure.
   Thou cleansedest the ground
   and rootedest it so,
   That all the whole land,
   it filled to and fro.

9. Why hast thou broke down then
   her hedges so fair:
   Till all that pass by her,
   have plucked her full bare?
10. The boar of the wood,
    hath digged up at will:
    And beasts of the field,
    their bellies they fill.

11. And visit the vineyard
    and field where it stood,
    Which thy right hand planted,
    when it was but rude.
    And of the young bud,
    some pity, Lord, take
    Which thou for thyself, most strong didst once make.

12. Which now all down beaten,
    is burnt up with fire:
    As people which perish
    at thy frowning ire.
13. But yet on that man
    let thine hand be known:
    Which by thy right hand
    thou chose for thine own.

14. On the son of man (Lord)
    thy might now declare:
    For thyself so potent
    whom thou didst prepare.
15. We shall not turn back,
    from thee then no more:
    Revive us, thy name
    so shall we implore.

16. O Lord God of armies,
    our strength and our stay,
    Return and restore us
    without more delay:
    And let shine on us
    thy countenance clear,
    So shall we be safe
    and shrink for no fear.
